BOOK SALE RESULTS

The Rose Lawn Used Book Sale September 19-20th raised $2,730 for Bookmobile programs!

Thank you to everyone who helped make the sale a reality: Bookmobile Board of Directors, volunteers, and shoppers. Thank you to our event sponsor:

BOOK SALE SET-UP

Lipscomb, Treasurer, Bookmobile Board of Directors, unloads books that have been brought from storage; Top right: the crew from

Boxes remaining after the sale. We were able to donate an entire pallet of adult paperback books to the

Cartersville jail. Below right: Cliff, Angie Barnette,

Board member, and Kim Dennis, Bookmobile Program

Director, pause from loading boxes for a selfie. Below

READY FOR PHASE 2!

Thank you, Styles Auto Care, for donating your time and labor to the tedious job of removing the old wrap! We appreciate you as a partner. Bookmobile supporters, be sure to use Styles Auto Care for all your auto needs, and while you are there tell them "thank you" for the great community work they do. Phase 2 is installation of the new wrap by New Beginning Signs & Graphics. Stay tuned!
